EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE OF EPWORTH HYMNAL NO. 1.

IN the old parish of Epworth, in Lincolnshire, England, lived the earnest, eccentric, and scholarly father, and the gifted, wise, and consecrated mother, of the illustrious John and Charles Wesley.

The story of Samuel Wesley's ministry at Epworth, extending over a period of thirty-nine years—from 1696 to 1735—is alive with interest. The people whom he served were, for the most part, poor, ignorant, coarse, and cruel. Those were days of political strife, when missiles and fire-brands were used as arguments. The godly rector, unflinching in his devotion to conviction, paid the price of his fidelity.

In poverty most oppressive, in conflicts most bitter, in labors most abundant, did the old rectory of Epworth hold and train the remarkable family from which were to come forth two of the most widely known and most successful workers in the Church of God—the one a preacher and bishop, the other a writer of sacred hymns. By sermon and song they two went forth to make known to the world the exceeding glory and the saving power of the Lord Jesus; to defend by Scripture the great doctrines of redemption, and by persuasive song to win the hearts of men from sin to righteousness, from self to Christ.

However grand the work and its results, we must not forget that the beginnings and the most valuable preparations were at Epworth, where Samuel Wesley studied and prayed and served, and where Susannah Wesley trained her children, counseled her husband, instructed their parishioners, and walked with God. Before Oxford was Epworth. Before Bristol and City Road Chapel was Epworth.

The poetic fire burned in Samuel Wesley. It reached white heat in the soul of his son Charles, "who was a poet by nature and habit," and of whose productions a distinguished critic says: "There are no hymns in the world of such 'spontaneous devotion,' none so loftily spiritual, none so unmistakably genuine and intensely earnest, as the best-known and largely used of Wesley's."*

John Wesley was also a writer of hymns, a lover of poetry, and a firm believer in the service of song as a means of grace for saints, and of awakening for sinners. He urged all the people to sing. He gave wise directions concerning the spirit and manner of singing, and his followers in all parts of the world have been famous for the ardor and power with which they have sung the praises of the Lord.

All this carries us back to Epworth, where, in addition to the songs of the rectory at family worship, we hear from the church the songs of the people as the faithful rector taught them to sing. The biographer of "The Mother of the Wesleys" says: "Samuel Wesley regarded psalmody as 'the most elevated part of public worship.' Notwithstanding his love for 'anthems and cathedral music,' he was willing to forego his own preferences for the sake of his uneducated flock, and allowed 'the novel way of parochial singing.' . . . Discarding the lazy and inharmonious drawings of a choir of ignorant and self-important rustics, he resolutely set himself to teach the congregation and children the divine art of sacred song. His efforts were so successful that he declares 'they did sing well after it had cost a pretty deal to teach them.'"

Thus from the Epworth church and parsonage rang out strains of music that have attracted the attention of the world; filled chapel, cathedral, and tented grove with melody; lifted the cry of penitence and the shout of triumph to the heavens; filled the mouths of children with praise, the hearts of believers with joy, the chamber of death with the pæans of victory.

The Committee appointed in pursuance of the action of the General Conference to prepare this book has done well in calling it the THE EPWORTH HYMNAL. Besides a certain euphony in the title, there come with it reverent and grateful thoughts concerning the character and services of the most excellent father of the Wesleys, and that modern Monica, whose strength and loveliness, whose piety and scholarship, are so manifest in the sons whom generations honour. There come also with the title—THE EPWORTH HYMNAL—memories of family prayer and family songs, of neighbors gathered by the devout Susannah on Sunday afternoons for special services of prayer, praise, and admonition, and of the meetings in Epworth church for the training of all the people, old and young, to sing the songs of the sanctuary.

Sweet home of Epworth, where reverent scholarship presided; where parents governed and children obeyed; where the Holy Scriptures were continually quoted and habitually followed;

where songs rose from grateful hearts to the listening heavens; where the voice of prayer was scarcely ever silent; where neighbors were collected for worship and counsel; where each child was brought into sacred conference with its mother concerning the soul, the law of God, the grace of Christ, and the home in heaven!

May our homes be full of law and liberty, of grace and gladness; and from them may there come into Sunday-school, social meeting, and public service those who are well prepared to study the word of God diligently, pray reverently, sing heartily, listen attentively, and live consistently!

PREFACE TO THE EPWORTH HYMNAL NO. 2.

THE EPWORTH HYMNAL, introduced to the Church in the stirring words repeated above, was received with a welcome worthy of its merits. After six years of faithful service, and of abounding popularity, there arose a demand for its revision. It was decided by the Committee, in consultation with the Book Agents, that the original work should be left unchanged, and that EPWORTH HYMNAL No. 2, upon the same plan, should be prepared.

The Committee in the compilation of this work consisted of the following: MR. JAMES M'GEE, Chairman; Mr. A. S. NEWMAN, Musical Editor; the Rev. JAMES S. CHADWICK, D.D., and the Rev. JESSE L. HURLBUT, D.D. To the industry, the judgment, and the taste of the musical editor the merits of the book are largely due. He has been assisted in the details of arrangement by Mr. S. V. R. Ford, musical editor of the Methodist Book Concern. The Responsive Services were prepared for this work by the Rev. J. E. Price, D.D., of New York.

Special thanks should be rendered to Drs. H. R. Palmer and George W. Warren, Mrs. Joseph F. Knapp, Messrs. Walter R. Johnston, Robert L. Fletcher, S. F. Ackley, William J. Kirkpatrick, Theodore E. Perkins, Charles H. Gabriel, F. L. Armstrong, and others for their kindness in permitting the use of their musical compositions.

Since the first hymnal of this name appeared the word "Epworth" has received additional import in the establishment of the Epworth League, which has called forth the activities of the young people. For the chapters of this great organization, and for the needs of other young people's societies, a special department of this work has been added. We trust that these songs will be received with favor and sung with enthusiasm by all our young people.

We present this work to the constituency of its predecessor with the hope that in the social services of the church, in the young people's devotional meeting, and in the Sunday-school it may aid us all to sing with the spirit, and with the understanding also.

New York, July 25, 1891.

THE BEATITUDES.

BLESSED are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peace-makers: for they shall be called the children of God.

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS.

And God spake all these words, saying,

I. THOU shalt have no other gods before me.

II. THOU shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

III. THOU shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath-day, and hallowed it.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt not kill.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

BAPTISMAL COVENANT.

I RENOUNCE the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the carnal desires of the flesh, so that I will not follow nor be led by them.

THE APOSTLES' CREED.

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the Holy Catholic Church,* the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Having been baptized in this faith, I will obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of my life, God being my helper.

SAMUEL WEBBE.

1. With - in thy house, O Lord our God In maj - es - ty ap - pear ;

Make this a place of thine a - bode, And shed thy bless - ings here.

Invoking divine blessings.

2 As we thy mercy-seat surround,
Thy Spirit, Lord, impart;
And let thy gospel's joyful sound,
With power reach every heart.

3 Here let the blind their sight obtain;
Here give the mourner rest;

Let Jesus here triumphant reign,
Enthroned in every breast.

4 Here let the voice of sacred joy
And fervent prayer arise,
Till higher strains our tongues employ,
In realms beyond the skies.

LIGHT OF LIFE.

DYKES.

1. Light of life, se - raph - ic fire, Love di - vine, thy - self im - part :

Ev - ery fainting soul in - spire, Shine in ev - 'ry droop - ing heart ;

2 Every mournful sinner cheer,
Scatter all our guilty gloom ;
Son of God, appear, appear !
To thy human temples come.

3 Come in this accepted hour ;
Bring thy heavenly kingdom in ;

Fill us with thy glorious power,
Rooting out the seeds of sin :

4 Nothing more can we require,
We will covet nothing less ;
Be thou all our heart's desire,
All our joy, and all our peace.

THE PLACE OF PRAYER.

ROBERT L. FLETCHER.

p mf

1. How sweet the place of pray'r, Where kindred spirits meet; From ev-'ry earthly care,

f

How pre-cious a re - treat: Be - fore the throne of grace, Our of - fer-ings we bring,

mf mf CHORUS.

And worship on - ly thee, Our Saviour, Priest and King. How sweet the place of pray'r!

f

How sweet the place of pray'r! Each time more precious seems The hallow'd place of pray'r.

2 Here, at the place of prayer,
So near to thee, and heaven,
Dear Lord, thyself reveal,
And speak our sins forgiven:
And, free from conscious guilt,
We'll own thy matchless grace,
Till prayer shall end in praise,
When we behold thy face.

3 How sweet the place of prayer,
With grateful memories crowned;
How sweet to linger near,
Where living streams abound;
Oh, sacred trysting place,
For Jesus meets us here;
Each waiting soul to bless,
That feels his presence near.

SING HIS PRAISE.

T. C. O'KANE.

1. Sing the praise of him for - ev - er, Who re - deem'd us from the grave;

Wash'd us in his blood most pre - cious, Free - ly all our sins for - gave;

Youthful voi - ces swell the cho - rus Of the ran - som'd from the fall;

Sing of par - don through his mer - its, Own and crown him Lord of all.

REFRAIN.

Praise, O praise him, our Re - deem - er, Loud ho - san - nas we will sing;

SONGS OF WORSHIP.

Praise, O praise him, our Re-deem-er, Priest and Prophet, heav'nly King.

2 Children in the temple praised him,
Sang hosannas to his name;
Shall not we who know his favor
Tell abroad his wondrous fame?
Angels, too, with harps and voices,
Loud their notes of rapture raise;
How much more shall we, his children,
Spread his glory, sing his praise!

3 Every star that shines above us
Adds a lustre to his fame;
Every flower that blooms around us
Yields a fragrance to his name;
All the heavenly host adore him
On the bright, eternal shore;
There, with them our voices blending,
We shall praise him evermore.

AWAKE MY SOUL. L. M.

1. A - wake, my soul, in joy - ful lays, And sing thy great Re - deemer's praise;

He just - ly claims a song from thee, His lov - ing kind - ness, oh, how free!

Lov - ing - kindness, lov - ing - kind - ness, His lov - ing - kind - ness, oh, how free'

2 He saw me ruined in the fall,
Yet loved me notwithstanding all;
He saved me from my lost estate,
His loving-kindness, oh, how great!

3 Though numerous hosts of mighty foes,
Though earth and hell my way oppose,
He safely leads my soul along,
His loving-kindness, oh, how strong!

HEAVENLY FATHER GRANT THY BLESSING.

L. WILDER.

Devoutly. CHORUS.

1. Heavenly Fa - ther, grant thy bless - ing, While thy praise we hum - bly sing,

Sin - ful hearts and lives con - fess - ing, Noth - ing wor - thy can we bring;

DUET.

Yet thy book of love hath taught us Thou wilt kind - ly bow thine ear:

CHORUS.

For the sake of him who bought us, We may call, and thou wilt hear.

2 What a boon to us is given,
Thus to lift our voice on high,
Well assured the ear of heaven
Hears our wants, and will supply.
Weak and sinful, oh how often,
Must we look to God alone,
For his grace our hearts to soften,
And sustain us as his own!

3 Bless, O Lord, this happy meeting,
While we stay, and when we go:
Here our hearts in friendly greeting,
Gladly join thy praise below;
But all earthly unions sever,
All their pleasures quickly fly:
Oh for grace to praise thee ever,
In that better world on high.

L. Wilder.

THE SHADOWS OF THE EVENING HOURS.

H. HILES.

1. The shadows of the evening hours Fall from the dark-'ning sky,

Up - on the frag - rance of the flow'rs The dews of eve - ning lie;

Be - fore thy throne, O Lord of heav'n! We kneel at close of day;

Look on thy chil - dren from on high, And hear us while we pray.

2 The sorrows of thy servants, Lord,
 Oh, do not thou despise,
 But let the incense of our prayers
 Before thy mercy rise;
 The brightness of the coming night
 Upon the darkness rolls;
 With hopes of future glory chase
 The shadows from our souls.

3 Slowly the rays of daylight fade;
 So fade within our heart
 The hopes in earthly love and joy,
 That one by one depart;

Slowly the bright stars, one by one,
 Within the heavens shine:—
 Give us, O Lord, fresh hopes in heaven,
 And trust in things divine.

4 Let peace, O Lord! thy peace, O God!
 Upon our souls descend,
 From midnight fears, and perils, thou
 Our trembling hearts defend;
 Give us a respite from our toil,
 Calm and subdue our woes;
 Through the long day we suffer, Lord,
 O give us now repose!

TRURO. L. M.

CHARLES BURNEY.

1. Je - sus, thou ev - er - last - ing King, Ac - cept the trib - ute which we bring;

Ac - cept thy well - de - serv'd re - nown, And wear our prais - es as thy crown.

2 Let every act of worship be
Like our espousals, Lord, to thee;
Like the blest hour, when from above
We first received the pledge of love.

3 Let every moment as it flies,
Increase thy praise, improve our joys,
Till we are raised to sing thy Name,
At the great supper of the Lamb.

Isaac Watts.

The spirit of prayer.

2 My feeble mind sustain,
By worldly thoughts oppressed;
Appear, and bid me turn again
To my eternal rest.

3 Swift to my rescue come,
Thine own this moment seize;

Gather my wandering spirit home,
And keep in perfect peace.

4 Suffered no more to rove
O'er all the earth abroad,
Arrest the prisoner of thy love,
And shut me up in God.

Whate'er thy bounteous grace hath given;
And run my course with even joy,
And closely walk with thee to heaven.

JESUS, SAVIOUR, PILOT ME.—Concluded.

Un-known waves be - fore me roll, Hid - ing rock and treach'rous shoal;

Chart and com - pass come from thee: Je - sus, Sav - iour, pi - lot me.

13

2 As a mother stills her child,
Thou canst hush the ocean wild;
Boist'rous waves obey thy will,
When thou sayst to them "Be still!"
Wondrous Sovereign of the sea,
Jesus, Saviour, pilot me.

3 When at last I near the shore,
And the fearful breakers roar
'Twixt me and the peaceful rest,
Then, while leaning on thy breast,
May I hear thee say to me,
"Fear not, I will pilot thee!"

HEAR MY PRAYER.

S. V. R. FORD.

1. Hear thou my pray'r in heav'n thy dwelling place O Lord of hosts; I humbly seek thy face;

For peace I cry, for sov'reign mer - cy plead, And grace to help in ev'ry time of need.

Copyright, 1891, by Hunt & Eaton.

2 O hide thy face forever from my sin:
Cleanse me from guilt and make me pure

All pride destroy, all vanity remove
And make my heart the temple of thy

3 When dangers fierce beset my trembling soul
Be my defence, the tempters pow'r control;
When tempests rage my heart shall fear no ill,
If I but hear thee whisper, "Peace, be still!"

I. { Soft-ly on the breath of evening Comes the tender sigh of day;
Lonely heart, by sorrow la - den, (Omit. . . . .) 'Tis the time to pray. }

CHORUS.

Weary pilgrim, cease thy mourning; Weary pilgrim, cease thy mourning, Rest beyond forever.

Chase our doubts and fears away;
'Tis the hour for calm devotion,
Pilgrim, watch and pray.—CHO.

Jesus guides thee on thy way;

MAINZER. L. M.

JOSEPH MAINZER.

1. O thou to whom, in an-cient time, The lyre of He-brew bards was strung,

Whom kings a-dored in song sub-lime, And prophets prais'd with glowing tongue.

True worship every-where accepted.

2 Not now on Zion's height alone
The favored worshiper may dwell,
Nor where, at sultry noon, thy Son
Sat weary by the patriarch's well.

3 From every place below the skies,
The grateful song, the fervent prayer,

The incense of the heart, may rise
To heaven, and find acceptance there.

4 O thou to whom, in ancient time,
The holy prophet's harp was strung,
To thee at last in every clime,
Shall temples rise and praise be sung.

John Pierpont.

i. In the rosy light of the morning bright, Lift the voice of praise on high;

From the lips of youth to the God of Truth, Let the joyful echoes fly.

2 Let his praise be spread, for the Lamb who bled

To deliver us from woe,
Has endured the cross, the disgrace, the loss,
Let his praise forever flow.—Сю.

3 Now exalted high over earth and sky,
He delights in mercy still;

Bends his gracious ear our requests to hear,
And our longing souls to fill.—Сю.

4 On the cross he hung for the old and young,

But he loves the children best;
To his arms we'll fly, on his grace rely,
And secure the promised rest.—Сю.

SWEET SAVIOUR, BLESS US ERE WE GO.

W. H. MONK.

Animation.

Sweet Sav- iour, bless us ere we go: Thy words in - to our minds in - still;

And make our luke-warm hearts to glow With low- ly love and fervent will.

Through life's long day, and death's dark night, O gen- tle Je - su, be our light.

20

- 2 The day is gone, its hours have run,
 And thou hast taken count of all,
 The scanty triumphs grace hath won,
 The broken vow, the frequent fall.
 Thro' life's long day and death's dark night,
 O gentle Jesu, be our light.
- 3 Grant us, dear Lord, from evil ways
 True absolution and release;
 And bless us, more than in past days,
 With purity and inward peace.
 Thro' life's long day and death's dark night.
 O gentle Jesu, be our light.
- 4 Labor is sweet, for thou hast toiled;
 And care is light, for thou hast cared;
 Ah, never let our works be soiled

- With strife, or by deceit ensnared.
 Thro' life's long day and death's dark night,
 O gentle Jesu, be our light.
- 5 For all we love, the poor, the sad,
 The sinful, unto thee we call;
 O let thy mercy make us glad;
 Thou art our Jesus, and our all.
 Thro' life's long day and death's dark night,
 O gentle Jesu, be our light.
- 6 Sweet Saviour, bless us, night is come,
 Through night and darkness near us be,
 Good angels watch about our home,
 And we are one day nearer thee.
 Thro' life's long day and death's dark night,
 O gentle Jesu, be our light.

Sabbath evening.

1 Softly fades the twilight ray
Of the holy Sabbath day ;
Gently as life's setting sun,
When the Christian's course is run.

2 Night her solemn mantle spreads
O'er the earth as daylight fades ;
All things tell of calm repose,
At the holy Sabbath's close.

3 Still the Spirit lingers near,
Where the evening worshiper
Seeks communion with the skies,
Pressing onward to the prize.

4 Saviour, may our Sabbaths be
Days of joy and peace in thee,
Till in heaven our souls repose,
Where the Sabbath ne'er shall close.

LOWELL MASON.

1. { Welcome, de-light-ful morn, Thou day of sacred rest ; }
 { We hail thy kind return; Lord make these moments blest; } From the low train of mortal toys,

We soar to reach im - mor - tal joys, We soar to reach im - mor - tal joys.

2 Now may the Lord descend
 And fill his throne of grace,
 Thy sceptre, Lord, extend,
 While saints address thy face;
 Let sinners feel thy quick'ning word,
 And learn to know and fear the Lord.

3 Descend, celestial Dove!
 With all thy quick'ning powers;
 Disclose a Saviour's love,
 And bless these sacred hours;
 Then shall our souls new life obtain,
 Nor Sabbath's be bestowed in vain.

FEDERAL STREET.

H. K. OLIVER.

1. Hail, ho - ly morn, whose ear - ly ray, Inspires with joy my long - ing breast,

Rel - ic of E - den's fair - est day, And type of heav'n's ex - alt - ed rest.

23

Holy, holy morn.

2 Thy sacred memories impart
A charm to thy returning light;
They thrill devotion's glowing heart,
With rapt emotions of delight.

3 Hallow'd in Eden was the dawn
That harbingered thy rising sun—
Proclaiming night's dark veil withdrawn,
The day of holy rest begun.

4 Sacred of old! thrice sacred now!
On thee th'enshrouded Prince of Life
Wrested the crown from Death's dark brow
And rose triumphant from the strife.

5 Then hail! all hail! sweet Sabbath morn
Let earth and heav'n their voices raise,
To celebrate thy glad return,
In anthems of divinest praise.

S. V. R. Ford.

HUMMEL. C. M.

1. The Lord of Sab - bath let us praise; In con - cert with the blest,

Who, joy - ful, in har - monious lays Em - ploy an end - less rest.

Easter Sunday.

1 The Lord of Sabbath let us praise,
In concert with the blest,
Who, joyful, in harmonious lays Employ an endless rest.

2 Thus, Lord, while we remember thee,
We blest and pious grow;
By hymns of praise we learn to be Triumphant here below.

3 On this glad day a brighter scene
Of glory was displayed,
By the eternal Word, than when
This universe was made.

4 He rises, who mankind has bought
With grief and pain extreme;
'Twas great to speak the world from naught;
'Twas greater to redeem.

Sinners shall ne'er be thy delight,
Nor dwell at thy right hand.

To taste thy mercies there;
I will frequent thy holy court,

SWEET IS THE WORK, O LORD.

J. BARNBY.

1. Sweet is the work, O Lord, Thy glo - rious name to sing;

To praise and pray—to hear thy word, And grate - ful off - 'rings bring.

28

1 Sweet is the work, O Lord,
Thy glorious name to sing;
To praise and pray—to hear thy word,
And grateful offerings bring.

2 Sweet—at the dawning light,
Thy boundless love to tell;
And when approach the shades of night,
Still on the theme to dwell.

3 Sweet—on this day of rest,
To join in heart and voice,
With those who love and serve thee best,
And in thy name rejoice.

4 To songs of praise and joy
Be every Sabbath given,
That such may be our blest employ
Eternally in heaven.

Thyself the blessing give.

 Our striving would be losing;
 Were not the right man on our side,

 Dost ask who that may be?
 Christ Jesus, it is he;
 Lord Sabaoth is his name,
 From age to age the same,
 And he must win the battle.

3 That word above all earthly powers—
 No thanks to them—abideth;
 The Spirit and the gifts are ours

 Let goods and kindred go,

2 Alone with thee, amid the mystic shadows,
The solemn hush of nature newly born;
Alone with thee in breathless adoration,
In the calm dew and freshness of the morn.

3 As in the dawning, o'er the waveless ocean,
The image of the morning-star doth rest;
So in this stillness, thou beholdest only,
Thine image in the waters of my breast.

4 Still, still to thee! as to each new-born morning,
A fresh and solemn splendor still is given,
So does this blessed consciousness awaking,

Breathe each day nearness unto thee and heaven.

5 When sinks the soul, subdued by toil, to slumber,

Its closing eye looks up to thee in prayer;
Sweet the repose beneath thy wings o'er-shading, [there.

But sweeter still, to wake and find thee

6 So shall it be at last, in that bright morn-

O in that hour, fairer than daylight dawning,
Shall rise the glorious thought—I am

Every humble spirit shares it,
Christ has passed th'eternal gates.

Join, O man, the deathless voices,
Child of God, lift up thy head!

Patriarchs from the distant ages,
Saints all longing for their heaven,
Prophets, psalmists, seers and sages,
All await the glory given.

Crowd on faith; what joy unknown,
When, amidst earth's closing thunders,
Saints shall stand before the throne!
Oh, to enter that bright portal,
See that glowing firmament,
Know, with thee, O God immortal,
"Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent!"

Shining in the east, beyond them far,
And to the earth it gave great light,
And so it continued both day and night.

3 And by the light of that same star,
Three wise men came from country far;
To seek for a King was their intent,
And to follow the star wherever it went.

4 This star drew nigh to the north-west,
O'er Bethlehem it took its rest,

And there it did both stop and stay,
Right over the place where Jesus lay.

5 There entered in those wise men three,
Full reverently upon their knee,
And offered there in his presence,
Their gold, and myrrh, and frankincense.

6 Then let us all with one accord,
Sing praises to our heavenly Lord,
That hath made heaven and earth of nought,
And with his blood mankind hath bought.

WELCOME, HAPPY MORNING. 5s.

A. S. SULLIVAN.

Joyous.

1. "Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say: Hell to-day is vanquish'd; Heav'n is won to-day! Lo! the dead is liv-ing, God for-ev-er-more! Hinn their true Crea-tor, all his works a-dore! "Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say.

2 Earth with joy confesses, clothing her for Spring,
 All good gifts returned with her returning King:
 Bloom in every meadow, leaves on every bough,
 Speak his sorrows ended, hail his triumph now.
 Hell to-day is vanquished; Heaven is won to-day.

3 Maker and Redeemer, Life and Health to all,
 Thou from Heaven beholding human nature's fall,
 Of the Father's Godhead true and only Son,
 Manhood to deliver, manhood didst put on.
 Hell to-day is vanquished: Heaven is won to-day!

4 Thou, of Life the Author, death didst undergo,
 Tread the path of darkness, saving strength to show;
 Come, then, True and Faithful, now fulfil thy word,
 'Tis thine own Third Morning! Rise, O buried Lord!
 "Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say.

5 Loose the souls long prisoned, bound with Satan's chain;
 All that now is fallen raise to life again;
 Show thy face in brightness, bid the nations see;
 Bring again our day-light; day returns with thee!
 Hell to-day is vanquished; Heaven is won to-day.

One star a-lone of all the train, Can fix the sin-ner's wand'ring eye.

"They saw the Star."

2 Once on the raging seas I rode,
The storm was loud, the night was dark,
The ocean yawned, and rudely blowed
The wind that tossed my foundering bark.
The wind that tossed my foundering bark.
Deep horror then my vitals froze;
Death-struck, I ceased the tide to stem;
When suddenly a star arose,—
It was the Star of Bethlehem!

3 It was my guide, my light, my all;
It bade my dark forebodings cease,
And through the storm and danger's thrall
It led me to the port of peace.
It led me to the port of peace.
Now safely moored, my perils o'er,
I'll sing, first in night's diadem,
For ever and for evermore,
The Star, the Star of Bethlehem!

Homeless, weary, sighing, weeping

Drops of blood upon the ground?
Who is this—despised, rejected,
Mocked, insulted, beaten, bound?

'Tis our God, who gifts and graces
On his Church now poureth down,
Who shall smite in holy vengeance
All his foes beneath his throne.

4 Who is this that hangeth dying,
While the rude world scoffs and scorns,
Numbered with the malefactors,
Torn with nails, and crown'd with thorns?

In the glorious golden city

And bid the weak be strong ;
To give them songs for sighing,
Their darkness turn to light,
Whose souls, condemned and dying,
Were precious in his sight.
- 3 He shall descend like showers
Upon the fruitful earth,
And love and joy, like flowers,
Spring in his path to birth :
- Before him, on the mountains,
Shall peace, the herald, go,
And righteousness, in fountains,
From hill to valley flow.
- 4 To him shall prayer unceasing,
And daily vows ascend ;
His kingdom still increasing,
A kingdom without end :
The tide of time shall never
His covenant remove ;
His name shall stand forever ;
That name to us is Love.

The round world keep high triumph,
And all that is therein;
Let all things seen and unseen
Their notes of gladness blend,
For Christ the Lord is risen,
Our Joy that hath no end.

THE ROSE OF SHARON.*

Words and Music by H. R. PALMER.

Its perfume is per-vad-ing the world, friend, Its perfume is for you and for me.

REFRAIN.

There's a Rose, . . . . a love-ly Rose, . . . . And its beauty all the world shall see ;
Rose that blooms for me, A Rose that blooms for you,

Copyright, 1878, by H. R. Palmer.

* Of the many names given to our Saviour, "The Rose of Sharon" is the most beautiful. This little hymn was written on the shores of the Mediterranean, amid the fragrance of ever-blooming roses, and beneath the matchless beauty of Italian skies. Thoughts of the Holy Land on the farther shore, and of the purity and loveliness of the life of our Saviour mingled unconsciously with the surrounding beauty, and took form in this little poem and melody.

THE ROSE OF SHARON.—Concluded.

There's a Rose, a love-ly Rose, Its per-fume is for you and for me.
Rose that blooms for me, A Rose that blooms for you,

Far away by the beautiful sea,
This pure Rose in its beauty first bloom'd,
friend,
And it blooms still for you and for me.
- 3 All in vain did they crush this fair flow'r,
friend,
All in vain did they shatter the tree,
For its roots, deeply bedded, sprang forth,
friend,
And it blooms still for you and for me.

 He died to make us good,

2 Master, with anguish of spirit
I bow in my grief to-day;
The depths of my sad heart are troubled—
Oh, waken and save, I pray!
Torrents of sin and of anguish
Sweep o'er my sinking soul;
And I perish! I perish! dear Master—
Oh, hasten, and take control!—CHO.

3 Master, the terror is over,
The elements sweetly rest;
Earth's sun in the calm lake is mirrored,
And heaven's within my breast;
Linger, O blessed Redeemer!
Leave me alone no more;
And with joy I shall make the blest harbor,
And rest on the blissful shore.—CHO.

Forget the treasures thou hast lost,

Where green festoons are turning.

Forget the toil and care and strife.

And see again, by Fancy's aid,

Adored by Shepherds sore afraid,—
And Star of Bethlehem shining!

Strew the earth with vernal flowers;

YES, JESUS IS MIGHTY TO SAVE.

WM. G. FISCHER, by per.

1. All glo - ry to Je - sus be given, That life and sal - va - tion are free;

And all may be wash'd and for - given, And Je - sus can save ev - en me.

CHORUS.

Yes, Je - sus is might - y to save, . . . And all his sal - va - tion may know; . . .
is might - y to save, sal - va - tion may know;

On his bo - som I lean, And his blood makes me clean, For his blood can wash whiter than snow.

1 All glory to Jesus be given,
That life and salvation are free;
And all may be washed and forgiven,
And Jesus can save even me.

2 From the darkness and sin and despair,
Out into the light of his love,
He has brought me, and made me an heir,
To kingdoms and mansions above.

3 Oh, the rapturous heights of his love,
The measureless depths of his grace;
My soul all his fullness would prove,
And live in his loving embrace.

4 In him all my wants are supplied,
His love makes my heaven below,
And freely his blood is applied,
His blood that makes whiter than snow.

Mrs. Annie Wittenmyer.

SHALL I LET HIM IN ?

H. R. PALMER.

Not too fast.

1. Christ is knock-ing at my sad heart; Shall I let Him in?

Pa-tient-ly pleading with my sad heart; Oh! shall I let Him in?

Cold and proud is my heart with sin; Dark and cheer-less is all with-in;

Christ is bid-ding me turn un-to him, Oh! shall I let him in?

105

- 1 Christ is knocking at my sad heart;
Shall I let him in?
Patiently pleading with my sad heart;
Oh! shall I let him in?
Cold and proud is my heart with sin;
Dark and cheerless is all within;
Christ is bidding me turn unto him,
Oh! shall I let him in?
- 2 Shall I send him the loving word;
Shall I let him in?
Meekly accepting my gracious Lord;
Oh! shall I let him in?

He can infinite love impart;
He can pardon this rebel heart;
Shall I bid him forever depart,
Or shall I let him in?

- 3 Yes, I'll open this heart's proud door,
Yes, I'll let him in;
Gladly I'll welcome him evermore;
Oh! yes, I'll let him in.
Blessed Saviour, abide with me;
Cares and trials will lighter be;
I am safe if I'm only with thee,
Oh! blessed Lord, come in.

To taste of his mercy, so boundless and free,

118 Love which passeth knowledge.

2 Ask but his grace, and lo, 'tis given;
Ask, and he turns your hell to heaven:
Though sin and sorrow wound my soul,
Jesus, thy balm will make it whole.

3 To shame our sins he blushed in blood;
He closed his eyes to show us God:
Let all the world fall down and know
That none but God such love can show.

4 'Tis thee I love, for thee alone
I shed my tears and make my moan;
Where'er I am, where'er I move,
I meet the object of my love.

5 Insatiate to this spring I fly;
I drink, and yet am ever dry:
Ah! who against thy charms is proof?
Ah! who that loves, can love enough?

Bernard of Clairvaux. Tr. by A. W. Boehm.

119 Salvation by grace.

1 We have no outward righteousness,
No merits or good works to plead;
We only can be saved by grace;
Thy grace, O Lord, is free indeed.

2 Save us by grace, through faith alone,
A faith thou must thyself impart;
A faith that would by works be shown,
A faith that purifies the heart:

3 A faith that doth the mountains move,
A faith that shows our sins forgiven,
A faith that sweetly works by love,
And ascertains our claim to heaven.

4 This is the faith we humbly seek,
The faith in thy all-cleansing blood,
That blood which doth for sinners speak;
O let it speak us up to God!

2 Sent by my Lord, on you I call;
The invitation is to all:
Come all the world! come, sinner, thou,
All things in Christ are ready now.

3 Come, all ye souls by sin oppressed,
Ye restless wanderers after rest;
Ye poor, and maimed, and halt, and blind,
In Christ a hearty welcome find.

4 My message as from God receive;
Ye all may come to Christ and live:
O let his love your hearts constrain,
Nor suffer him to die in vain.

5 See him set forth before your eyes,
That precious, bleeding sacrifice:
His offered benefits embrace,
And freely now be saved by grace.

Sing, and cast their crowns before thee,
"Lord, for us the Lamb was slain."
- 3 Thus thy Church, whate'er her dwelling
Heaven above or earth below,
One harmonious chorus swelling,

Changeless sounds the wondrous story,
"Lord, for us the Lamb was slain."

THE SAVIOUR BIDS THEE COME.--Concluded.

2 Strait is the gate, and narrow
The way that leads to life;
But, oh! what great salvation,
That ends the sinful strife.
What joy and peace unbounded
Possess the new-born soul;
What rest, what blissful freedom,
When made entirely whole!—CHO.

3 The race by sin is blinded,
And have not ears to hear;
Rejecting love and mercy,
With scarce a thought or fear
And yet the Spirit calleth,
And points the heav'nly road,
That leads to joys immortal,
Close by the throne of God.—CHO.

JESUS CALLING.

REV. ALBERT GOULD.

1. How sweet - ly sounds the call, The Sav - iour gives to all,

"Come un - to me;" Though faint and wea - ry, come, With all thy bur - dens come, With trust - ing hearts, still come, Here's rest for thee.

2 When weary in the way,
O hear the Saviour say;
"Come unto me;"
Bring all thy doubts and fears;
Bring all thy griefs and tears;
The feeblest cry he hears:
There's rest for thee.

3 Rest for the weary heart,
To us O Lord impart,
We come to thee;
Grant us thy love to know;
On us thy grace bestow:
May each one here below
Find rest in thee.

Full and free.

2 Poor, sinful, thirsty, fainting souls
Are freely welcome here;
Salvation, like a river, rolls
Abundant, free, and clear.

3 Come, then, with all your wants and
Your every burden bring: [wounds;
Here love, unchanging love, abounds,
A deep celestial spring.

4 Whoever will—O gracious word!
May of this stream partake;
Come, thirsty souls, and bless the Lord
And drink, for Jesus' sake.

5 Millions of sinners, vile as you,
Have here found life and peace;
Come, then, and prove its virtues too,
And drink, adore, and bless.

2 Nay, but I yield, I yield;
I can hold out no more:

My hope, my heavenly treasure, now
Enter, and keep my heart.

Oth-ers all a-round are pray-ing, Come to Christ this ver-y hour.

2 Are you certain of the morrow,
That you falter thus and wait?
Coming time you cannot borrow,
Trifling, you may seal your fate;
Come at once and do not linger,
While the Master calls for thee,
Scorn may point the taunting finger,
But the Lord will set you free.

3 Tho' your sins may rise like mountains,
Cutting off your soul from God,
Yet his grace, in healing fountains,
Flows by faith in Jesus' blood;
Sinner, then delay no longer,
For more feeling do not wait,
Feeling may not grow the stronger,
Waiting, you may be too late.

At the early dawn,
Calling us to duty.
Now the day is done—
As we light our camp-fires
'Neath the falling dew,
Can we say we've conquered?
Sinner, what say you?

3 When life's war is ended,
And the setting sun
Marks our last day's battle,
And we're going home,
What will be our greeting
In that land of light?

To go home to-night?

2 Other knowledge I disdain;
 'Tis all but vanity;
 Christ, the Lamb of God, was slain,
 He tasted death for me.
 Me to save from endless woe
 The sin-atoning Victim died:
 Only Jesus will I know,
 And Jesus crucified.

3 Here will I set up my rest;
 My fluctuating heart
 From the haven of his breast
 Shall never more depart:
 Whither should a sinner go?
 His wounds for me stand open wide;
 Only Jesus will I know,
 And Jesus crucified.

4 Him to know is life and peace,
 And pleasure without end;
 This is all my happiness,
 On Jesus to depend;
 Daily in his grace to grow,
 And ever in his faith abide;
 Only Jesus will I know,
 And Jesus crucified.

5 O that I could all invite,
 This saving truth to prove;
 Show the length, the breadth, the height,
 And depth of Jesus' love!
 Fain I would to sinners show
 The blood by faith alone applied:
 Only Jesus will I know,

DEVIZES.—Concluded.

Musical score for 'DEVIZES.—Concluded.' in G major, 4/4 time. The score consists of two staves: a treble staff and a bass staff. The lyrics are: 'cov - enant join Our - selves to Christ the Lord; Our - selves to Christ the Lord.'

166

Renewing the covenant.

1 Come, let us use the grace divine,
And all, with one accord,
In a perpetual covenant join
Ourselves to Christ the Lord.

2 Give up ourselves, through Jesus' power,
His name to glorify;
And promise, in this sacred hour,
For God to live and die.

3 The covenant we this moment make
Be ever kept in mind;
We will no more our God forsake,
Or cast his words behind.

4 We never will throw off his fear
Who hears our solemn vow;
And if thou art well pleased to hear,
Come down, and meet us now.

5 Thee, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Let all our hearts receive;
Present with the celestial host,
The peaceful answer give.

6 To each the covenant blood apply,
Which takes our sins away;
And register our names on high,
And keep us to that day.

Success certain.

1 Lord, if at thy command
The word of life we sow,
Watered by thy almighty hand,
The seed shall surely grow:

2 The virtue of thy grace
A large increase shall give,
And multiply the faithful race
Who to thy glory live.

3 Now, then, the ceaseless shower
Of gospel blessings send,
And let the soul-converting power

For fuller joys above.

Prayer.

2 Consecrate us to thy service;
From on high our souls endow;
Whither, Saviour, thou dost lead us,
To thy righteous will we bow;
When assailed by fierce temptations,
When the storm-clouds darkly lower,
In thy strong pavilion hiding,
Save and keep us by thy power.

3 Care for those we love and cherish;
Warm the hearts that now are cold;
Turn the steps of those who wander,
Back again to seek thy fold;

And, thro' all this world of evil,
Help thy servants to proclaim
Life and pardon to the sinner
Thro' the power of thy great name.

4 Draw us, Saviour, draw us nearer;
Give us grace for every day;
Take away whatever hinders
When we praise, or talk, or pray;
Fill our hearts with pure devotion;
May we all this hour partake
Of the fullness of thy blessing;
All we ask for thy name's sake.

Perfect peace.

2 Wherever he may guide me,
No want shall turn me back;
My Shepherd is beside me,
And nothing can I lack.
His wisdom ever waketh,
His sight is never dim,
He knows the way he taketh,
And I will walk with him.

3 Green pastures are before me,
Which yet I have not seen;
Bright skies will soon be o'er me,
Where darkest clouds have been.
My hope I cannot measure,
My path to life is free,
My Saviour has my treasure,
And he will walk with me.

1 I am trusting thee, Lord Jesus,
Trusting only thee;
Trusting thee for full salvation,
Great and free.

2 I am trusting thee for pardon,
At thy feet I bow;

For thy great and tender mercy,
Trusting now.

3 I am trusting thee, Lord Jesus,
Never let me fall;
I am trusting thee forever,
And for all.

Mrs. J. F. KNAPP, by per.

cross from day to day, I am com - ing near-er; Near - er the cross 'where

Je - sus died, Near - er the fount-ain's crim - son tide, Near - er my Sav - iour's wound - ed side, I am com - ing near - er, I am com - ing near - er.

177

2 Nearer the Christian's mercy seat,
I am coming nearer;
Feasting my soul on manna sweet
I am coming nearer;
Stronger in faith, more clear I see
Jesus who gave himself for me;
Nearer to him I still would be:
Still I'm coming nearer,
Still I'm coming nearer.

3 Nearer in prayer my hope aspires
I am coming nearer:
Deeper the love my soul desires,
I am coming nearer;
Nearer the end of toil and care,
Nearer the joy I long to share,
Nearer the crown I soon shall wear:
I am coming nearer,
I am coming nearer.

PENITENCE. 7s, 6s, 8s.

WILLIAM HENRY OAKLEY.

1. Je - sus, let thy pity - ing eye Call back a wan - dering sheep;

False to thee, like Pe - ter, I Would fain, like Pe - ter, weep.

Let me be by grace re-stored; On me be all long-suffer-ing shown;

Turn, and look up - on me, Lord, And break my heart of stone.

178 Humility and contrition.

2 Saviour, Prince, enthroned above,
 Repentance to impart,
 Give me, through thy dying love,
 The humble, contrite heart;
 Give what I have long implored,
 A portion of thy grief unknown;
 Turn, and look upon me, Lord,
 And break my heart of stone.

3 See me, Saviour, from above,
 Nor suffer me to die;
 Life, and happiness, and love
 Drop from thy gracious eye:

Speak the reconciling word,
 And let thy mercy melt me down;
 Turn, and look upon me, Lord,
 And break my heart of stone.

4 Look, as when thy languid eye
 Was closed that we might live;
 "Father," at the point to die
 My Saviour prayed, "forgive!"
 Surely, with that dying word, [done!]
 He turns, and looks, and cries, "'Tis
 O my bleeding, loving Lord,
 Thou breakest my heart of stone!

Gather souls in Jesus name;

Kindly and cheering,
Point them to the crucified;

Rescue the prayerless,
Plead with the careless,

MISSION SONG. 8s, 7s. D.

1. Hark! the voice of Jesus calling, Who will go and work to-day? Fields are white, the harvest waiting,
 D.S.—Who will answer, gladly saying,

Who will bear the sheaves away? Loud and long the Master calleth, Rich reward he offers free;
 "Here am I, O Lord, send me."

The laborers are few.

2 If you cannot cross the ocean
 And the heathen lands explore,
 You can find the heathen nearer,
 You can help them at your door;
 If you cannot speak like angels,
 If you cannot preach like Paul,
 You can tell the love of Jesus,
 You can say he died for all.

3 While the souls of men are dying,
 And the Master calls for you,
 Let none hear you idly saying,
 "There is nothing I can do!"
 Gladly take the task he gives you,
 Let his work your pleasure be;
 Answer quickly when he calleth,
 "Here am I, O Lord, send me."

 Settling down upon the landscape,
 Points us onward to the tomb.

 As the months and years go by;
 More of trustful, hopeful waiting,

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of three systems of music. Each system has a vocal line on a treble clef staff and a piano accompaniment on a bass clef staff. The key signature is one flat (B-flat major or D minor) and the time signature is 4/4. The tempo is marked 'Maestoso'. The lyrics are: 'I. We come thy praise to sing; . . . We crown thee, glo-ri-ous King, Our sun and shield! Help us to love the light, Help us to do the right, Teach thou our hands to fight, . . . And nev-er, nev-er yield.' There are triplets in the piano accompaniment.

2 When sin our hearts assails,
When faith or courage fails,
Take thou our part;
Bid faith and hope return,
Let love intensely burn,
So that we ever learn
How strong, how strong thou art!

3 O Jesus, ever blest,
Give us thy joy, thy rest,
And keep thine own;
Save us from self and sin,
Make us all pure within,
Then take thy conquerors in
To share, to share thy throne.

FORWARD BE OUR WATCHWORD.

FRANCIS JOSEPH HAYDN.

1. Forward! be our watchword, Steps and voices join'd; Seek the things before us, Not a look behind:

Burns the fiery pillar At our army's head; Who shall dream of shrinking, By our Captain led?

Forward thro' the desert, Thro' the toil and fight; Jordan flows before us, Zion beams with light!

Forward into light.

2 Forward! flock of Jesus,
Salt of all the earth,
Till each yearning purpose
Spring to glorious birth:
Sick, they ask for healing;
Blind, they grope for day;
Pour upon the nations
Wisdom's loving ray.
Forward, out of error,
Leave behind the night;
Forward through the darkness,
Forward into light!

3 Glories upon glories
Hath our God prepared,
By the souls that love him
One day to be shared:
Eye hath not beheld them,
Ear hath never heard;

Nor of these hath uttered
Thought or speech a word.
Forward, marching eastward
Where the heaven is bright,
Till the veil be lifted,
Till our faith be sight!

4 Far o'er yon horizon
Rise the city towers,
Where our God abideth;
That fair home is ours:
Flash the streets with jasper,
Shine the gates with gold;
Flows the gladdening river
Shedding joys untold;
Thither, onward thither,
In the Spirit's might:
Pilgrims to your country,
Forward into light!

2 My Father's house on high,
Home of my soul, how near,
At times, to faith's aspiring eye
Thy golden gates appear.
Ah! then my spirit faints
To reach the land I love;
The bright inheritance of saints—
Jerusalem above;
Home above, home above,
Jerusalem above.

3 Yet doubts still intervene,
And all my comfort flies;
Like Noah's dove, I flit between
Rough seas and stormy skies.
Anon the clouds depart,
The wind and waters cease,
While sweetly o'er my gladdened heart
Expands the bow of peace:
Bow of peace, bow of peace,

KIND WORDS CAN NEVER DIE.

ABBY HUTCHINSON.

1. Kind words can never die, Cherish'd and blest, God knows how deep they lie, Stor'd in the breast:

Like childhood's simple rhymes, Said o'er a thousand times, Ay, in all years and climes Distant and near.

Kind words can never die, Never die, never die, Kind words can never die, No, never die.

217

2 Sweet thoughts can never die,
 Though, like the flowers,
 Their brightest hues may fly
 In wintry hours.
 But when the gentle dew
 Gives them their charms anew,
 With many an added hue
 They bloom again.
 Sweet thoughts can never die,
 Never die, never die,
 Sweet thoughts can never die,
 No, never die.

3 Our souls can never die,
 Though in the tomb
 We may all have to lie,
 Wrapped in its gloom.
 What though the flesh decay,
 Souls pass in peace away,
 Live through eternal day
 With Christ above.
 Our souls can never die,
 Never die, never die,
 Our souls can never die,
 No, never die.

Jesus, our petitions hear.

When in after years we roam
Far from teachers, far from home,
Guide us, guard us, Saviour dear,
Jesus, friend of children, hear.

3 If success in life be ours,
All our path be strewn with flowers,
In our happiness be near,
"Light of Light," in mercy hear.

Or if poverty's low cot,
Pain or suffering be our lot,
Thou the drooping heart canst cheer,
Friend of mourners, then be near.

4 If preserved to hoary age,
Keep us in life's latest stage;
When the gate of death is near,
Lighten thou the passage drear.
Then when life's brief course is run,
Thou our hope, our shield, our sun,
Like to thee may we appear,
Jesus, Saviour, hear, O hear.

Our human hearts are brought,

His sins on earth forgiven?
How can my gracious Saviour show

We all his unknown peace receive,

And swells unutterably full

And conquerors of the world, we dwell

He died for thee.

- 1 Behold the Saviour of mankind
Nailed to the shameful tree;
How vast the love that him inclined
To bleed and die for thee!
- 2 Hark! how he groans, while nature shakes,
And earth's strong pillars bend:
The temple's veil in sunder breaks,
The solid marbles rend.
- 3 'Tis done! the precious ransom's paid!
"Receive my soul!" he cries:
See where he bows his sacred head;
He bows his head, and dies!
- 4 But soon he'll break death's envious chain,
And in full glory shine:
O Lamb of God, was ever pain,
Was ever love, like thine?

No longer in thy sins lie down:
The garment of salvation take;
Thy beauty and thy strength put on.
- 2 Shake off the dust that blinds thy sight,
And hides the promise from thine eyes;
Arise, and struggle into light;
The great Deliverer calls, "Arise!"
- 3 Shake off the bands of sad despair;
Zion, assert thy liberty;
Look up, thy broken heart prepare,
And God shall set the captive free.
- 4 Vessels of mercy, sons of grace,
Be purged from every sinful stain;
Be like your Lord, his word embrace,
Nor bear his hallowed name in vain.

Which here we come to prove;
Thy name is life, and health, and peace,
And everlasting love.
- 3 Not in the name of pride
Or selfishness we meet;
From nature's paths we turn aside,
And worldly thoughts forget.
- 4 We meet the grace to take,
Which thou hast freely given;
We meet on earth for thy dear sake,
That we may meet in heaven.

Walking in all his ways, they find
Their heaven on earth begun.
- 2 The Church triumphant in thy love,
Their mighty joys we know:
They sing the Lamb in hymns above,
And we in hymns below.
- 3 Thee in thy glorious realm they praise
And bow before thy throne;
We in the kingdom of thy grace:
The kingdoms are but one.
- 4 The holy to the holiest leads,
And thence our spirits rise;
For he that in thy statutes treads
Shall meet thee in the skies.

253 For lowliness and purity.

- 1 Jesus, in whom the Godhead's rays
Beam forth with mildest majesty;
I see thee full of truth and grace,
And come for all I want to thee.
- 2 Save me from pride—the plague expel,
Jesus, thine humble self impart:
O let thy mind within me dwell;
O give me lowliness of heart.
- 3 Enter thyself, and cast out sin;
Thy spotless purity bestow:
Touch me, and make the leper clean,
Wash me, and I am white as snow.
- 4 Sprinkle me, Saviour, with thy blood
And all thy gentleness is mine;
And plunge me in the purple flood,
Till all I am is lost in thine.
